Anil Salickdas

Materials Coordinator

Shakopee, Minnesota | April 2015

Midwest Industrial Coatings, Inc. would like to announce our latest hire in Anil Salickdas. Anil brings with him eight years of experience as a compounder, mostly with Apex International, and is a welcome addition to our team.

Originally from Guyana in South America, Anil moved to join his wife and eventually settle down in the United States. While still in Guyana, Anil studied agriculture and science, and went on to earn honors as an active cricket player.

Today, when he isn't at work, you'll find him in enjoying time with his family, either at home or on one of their many trips to the park.

In working with Anil, we are sure you will discover his passion for teamwork and his eagerness to contribute to the company in any way he knows how, whether that includes reaching goals or setting new ones.

We also hope that you get to know Anil's kind and generous side. In addition to being an avid supporter of the Make a Wish Foundation, Anil volunteers with the Red Cross whenever possible.

Midwest Industrial Coatings Inc encourages you to welcome Anil to our team and make him feel right at home. We continue to take pride in growing our company with high quality individuals and believe Anil to be a perfect match for our MICI family.
