Mitch Kardor

Dispensing Technician

Shakopee, Minnesota | March 2015

Midwest Industrial Coatings, Inc. would like to introduce and welcome Mitch Kardor to our company. Mitch joins us in the capacity of Dispensing Technician after having spent more than ten years in the chemical industry.

Mitch is a graduate of Rasmussen College, Minnesota, where he studied Criminal Justice. He hails from Staten Island, New York, but moved to Minnesota in the winter of 1999 and has remained in the Midwest ever since, drawn by the promising career prospects, and eventually his fiancé and children.

Mitch is a self-described team-player and problem solver, traits that we value here at MICI.

Mitch loves talking politics and current events from around the world. If needed he can have these conversations in one of the three different languages that he speaks (English, French and Bassa). He spends much of his time reading - history in particular - and loves learning about different cultures as a way of understanding different people across the globe. When the weather warms up in the summer months, you can find him riding his motorcycles around the Minnesota countryside.

We welcome Mitch to our Midwest Industrial Coatings, Inc. team. Good luck and thanks for choosing MICI!
